SHOWING YOUR HOME

Once your home is ready to show, as your Windermere agent, I will begin marketing it to potential buyers and other sales associates. If possible, leave the home when buyers are present so they feel comfortable asking their agent candid questions. Other helpful tips include:

- › Remove pets. Take them with you or keep them penned in the yard or garage.
- › Open shades and curtains to let in light.
- › Turn on enough lights so the home is well-lit.
- › Remove clutter from tables and bookshelves. Neatness makes rooms seem larger.
- › Put away items in the yard such as garden tools, bicycles and toys.
- › Turn on gas fireplaces to create a cozy atmosphere.
- › Grind up part of a lemon in the disposal to add a fresh smell to the kitchen.
- › Keep radios and TVs off, or on low volume.
- › Keep money and other valuables, as well as prescription drugs, locked up.

PURCHASE AND SALE AGREEMENT

Once you've found a buyer for your home, I will work with you through the purchase and sale agreement. This is the contract in which you and the buyer outline the details of your property transfer. The purchase and sale agreement usually consists of the following:

- › Earnest money receipt
- › Financing addendum
- › Inspection addendum
- › Conditions/disclosure addendum
- › Contingency addendum, when appropriate
- › Addendum outlining special conditions
- › Lead-based paint notification, when appropriate

In selected areas, the following forms will also be part of your agreement:

- › Agency disclosure form
- › Property disclosure form

HOME INSPECTIONS

Once a buyer has decided to make an offer on your home, it will usually be contingent upon a professional inspection of the entire property—including improvements. The home inspector looks beyond the cosmetics to make sure that the home's general systems operate properly. The inspector will also look for large repairs that are needed and report on the condition of the home.

The standard home inspector's report will review the conditions of the home's heating and cooling systems; interior plumbing and electrical systems; the roof, attic and visible insulation; walls, ceilings, floors, windows and doors; foundation, basement and visible structure. The inspector will also look for cracks in cement walls, water stains that indicate leakage, and any indication of wood rot.

A home inspection also points out the positive aspects of a home, as well as the maintenance that will be necessary to keep it in good shape.

As the seller, you can also elect to hire an inspector to evaluate your home prior to putting it on the market. Many times an inspector can point out major or minor issues with your home that you may be unaware of and that may affect its value.

As your Windermere agent, I'm familiar with home-inspection services and can provide you with a list of names from which to choose. Another good way to find a home inspector is to ask a friend, or perhaps a business acquaintance, who has had a home inspection and can recommend a home inspector they were satisfied with.

Remember, no home is perfect. If major problems are found, I will help you negotiate through the process.

MOVING TIPS

The process of moving is long and complex. Being organized, knowing what needs to be done, and tackling tasks efficiently can make your move significantly less stressful. Here's a checklist to keep you on task and help make your move successful.

SIX TO EIGHT WEEKS BEFORE:

- › Use up things that may be difficult to move, such as frozen food.
- › Get estimates from professional movers or from truck rental companies if you are moving yourself.
- › Once you've selected a mover, discuss insurance, packing, loading and delivery, and the claims procedure.
- › Sort through your possessions. Decide what you want to keep, what you want to sell and what you wish to donate to charity.
- › Record serial numbers on electronic equipment, take photos (or video) of all your belongings and create an inventory list.
- › Change your utilities, including phone, power and water, from your old address to your new address.
- › Obtain a change of address packet from the post office and send to creditors, magazine subscription offices and catalog vendors.
- › Discuss tax-deductible moving expenses with your accountant and begin keeping accurate records.

TWO TO FOUR WEEKS BEFORE:

- › If you're moving to a new community, contact the Chamber of Commerce and school district and request information about services.
- › Make reservations with airlines, hotels and car rental agencies, if needed.
- › If you are moving yourself, use your inventory list to determine how many boxes you will need.
- › Begin packing nonessential items.
- › Arrange for storage, if needed.
- › If you have items you don't want to pack and move, hold a yard sale.
- › Get car license, registration and insurance in order.
- › Transfer your bank accounts to new branch locations. Cancel any direct deposit or automatic payments from your accounts if changing banks.
- › Make special arrangements to move pets, and consult your veterinarian about ways to make travel comfortable for them.
- › Have your car checked and serviced for the trip.
- › Collect items from safe-deposit box if changing banks.

TWO TO THREE DAYS PRIOR:

- › Defrost your refrigerator and freezer.
- › Have movers pack your belongings.
- › Label each box with the contents and the room where you want it to be delivered.
- › Arrange to have payment ready for the moving company.
- › Set aside legal documents and valuables that you do not want packed.
- › Pack clothing and toiletries, along with extra clothes in case the moving company is delayed.
- › Give your travel itinerary to a close friend or relative so they can reach you as needed.

Pack a “first day” box with items you will need right away.

MOVING DAY: OLD HOME

- › Pick up the truck as early as possible if you are moving yourself.
- › Make a list of every item and box loaded on the truck.
- › Let the mover know how to reach you.

MY BIO

Whether you're seeking peace, the beautiful outdoors, or want to surround yourself with kind-hearted people, our island community truly does have it all. I have been visiting the Camano Island/Stanwood area my entire life and now live here full-time. For me and my family, Camano represents a separation from the hectic world of the mainland (or city) life; it brings an appreciation of a more basic life of leisure and appreciation of the Earth. Living and working in Stanwood/Camano Island is extremely rewarding.

I love being a real estate agent and get great enjoyment in helping my clients make choices that will move them forward with their life plans. With home ownership, at times, comes fear and anxiety. My ability to connect with my clients on a personal level, finding that common ground through empathy and honesty, enables us to communicate more freely about their home wants and desires. Clients trust that I have their best interest at heart, always, and as a result, we're able to work together in a way that is efficient and smooth.

When I'm not helping clients, I enjoy spending time with my wonderful family, writing and playing music with my band, practicing Taekwondo (I hold a 3rd degree black belt), being out on the water crabbing or boating, or helping in my community.

Currently, my real estate niche is residential, vacant land, investment properties, and first-time home buyers. If you require an agent and want to work with someone who is effective, honest, patient, helpful, and knowledgeable of the local market, please reach out to me. I'd love to help you!

REVIEWS / TESTIMONIALS

Highly likely to recommend

An all 5-star review for Michael is not inflated! We would add more if we could. We couldn't have asked for a better agent to help us sell our home. We're meticulous with details and rarely work with anyone that meets our requirements, but Michael EXCEEDED our hopes for an exceptional agent.... We were impressed with his knowledge of the contract terminology, his ability to break it down into layman's terms, and we proceeded with confidence signing all docs readily. He was so thorough that all went incredibly smoothly all the way to receiving the check from escrow... Michael was a delight to work with as well! He really listened to us, didn't suggest things that weren't our style, gave advice when asked for things like staging and what would be good to do for the easiest sale, such as getting a pre-inspection or changing out our old water heater, things like that... We can't recommend Michael enough as an agent with genuine integrity, someone who listens and doesn't put his own values and preferences onto the buyer. He sees who you are, what you're after, and he makes sure to work toward what you want. And in his sphere of expertise as a RE agent, he just shines. His meticulousness ensures there are no surprises at doc signing time, thus ensuring all goes smoothly and on time... Michael Ofstad is the most amazing real estate agent. He's a really super nice guy, too, interesting and fun! - excerpt from maps38 (read entire review on Zillow.com)

Mike has been great to work with. First with the selling of my parents home after their unexpected passing a couple years ago, and more recently with the purchase of my first home. We looked at so many properties, but finally found the right one and couldn't be happier! - marygiles1975

Michael was great to work with, he knows the market, always kept me up to date, and was always one step ahead in knowing how to help me deal with financing issues. Excellent real estate knowledge, I would highly recommend him..... - Mike Cona

Mike went way above and beyond. I lost count of how many houses and lots of land we went to, but it was a LOT! He was always professional and courteous. He really went the distance to make sure we got into the perfect house for us. I tell all of my friends and family that they need to contact Mike if they want to buy or sell. You definitely won't regret it. - zuser20160116195903747
